

ONE WORLD, MANY RELIGIONS

---

KIDS CLUB

MAY 17, 2023

JUDAISM

---

- In Judaism, they worship the one God.
- For scriptures they use the first 5 books of the Bible called the Torah.
- Jews try to follow the 10 commandments and the law.
- Judaism started with Abraham and Sarah.
- Practiced worldwide by 14.3 million people.
- Their holy land is called Israel.
- Fun Fact: When boys and girls turn 13, they have a special ceremony called a Bar Mitzvah.

CHRISTIANITY

- Worships only one God, in 3 persons ( Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit)
- They use the 66 books of the Bible. (Old and New Testament.)
- Salvation is based on grace through faith.
- Christianity started with the birth of Jesus, and spread through the apostles.
- Practiced worldwide by estimated 2 billion people.
- Fun Fact: Almost all church's recite the Lord's Prayer, the one Jesus taught his followers.

ISLAM

- They worship one God named, Allah. Allah is the chief of the gods and goddesses that the people in Arabia worshiped.
- The holy book they use is called the Koran.
- A man named Muhammad started Islam 600 years after Jesus.
- Practiced worldwide estimated 1.2 billion people.
- Islam is mainly located in Africa, Indonesia and through out Middle East.
- Fun Fact: Women who wear head coverings do it in respect for Allah.

HINDUISM

- Hindus worship millions of gods and goddesses. The main 3 they worship are Vishnu, Shakti, and Shiva.
- A collection of Hindu writings form the Vedas meaning “books of knowledge.”
- Hinduism developed over many years from different races and cultures.
- Practiced worldwide estimated 799 million people.
- Hinduism is practiced mainly in the southern parts of Asia/India.
- Fun Fact: Cows are the most sacred animal in Hinduism, they won't kill cows for food because they don't eat meat of any kind.

VIDEO

